

www.lovelandproducts.com

AWAKEN® 3D is a balanced micronutrient tool that supports the metabolic functions of many crops. The vital micronutrients contained in AWAKEN 3D are particularly effective at providing the plant the essential nutrients needed to help overcome stressful situations by addressing micronutrient deficiencies. This concentrated and crop safe package support the yield and quality goals of many crops and growers. Analysis:16-0-2 + micros.

Product Benefits:

- Ammonia-free for safety in applications on foliage or seedlings
- Drives photosynthesis and root growth especially during periods of stress
- Quick absorption of nutrients for stronger crop response and increased vigor
- Chelated formula supports mixing with many over the top chemistry partners or other liquid fertilizers providing a convenient way to meet crop demand in many production systems